Robertson and Zim Help Chicago Land Title Game

Davy Makes Muff Giving HOW THE RUNS WERE MADE

Jackson Hits Fly. Benton amassed an actount of two strikes and two balls against Joe, and then he knocked a high fly to right. It was not a long fly, but it was a tall lelsurely fly, and it was all in the Southern Confederacy. It was hit by a South Carolinian off a North Carolinian and it was awaited by a Virginian. The ball rose higher than a rebel yell, but when it fell it dropped lower than the New Orleans delta. Robertson awaited quite a speil before it fell into his glove, and cuddled there an instant. Then it leaked out upon the green sward, or grass. Eddis Collins galloped fiercely to third. Shoeless Joe, who had practically abandoned hope of getting anywhere at all, halted at first.

Happy Felsch hit an easy roller to Happy Felsch hit an easy roller to Benton, and the round shouldered "Rube" gathered up the ball, and calmly took a look around.

Collins Is Caught.

Collins Is Caught.

He saw that Eddie Collins was well removed from third. So he trotted over that way and "caged" Eddie. The latter, thinking he was a sure out, began running up and down the base line, ducking extinction as long as possible to give Jackson and Felsch a chance to move up. Finally, when he was headed back toward third, Benton tossed the ball to Zimmerman. Then it was that Heine began thinking he could outrun Eddie. Edward is known as one of the fastest things afoot in the large leagues. Still, a daschund might think he could outrun a rabbit if one hoped up right under its muszle. Heine took out after Eddie, holding the ball firmly in his hands. Eddie took out for the plate. "Wa'al Bill" Rariden straddled the base line near home, his hands outstretched for Heine's throw.

"Wa'al" he called to Heine "well throw in his hand apparently had the game and apparently had the stram and apparentl

Laurel, Md., Oct. 15.—The Liberty Bond Handicap, the feature of the afternoon's program, was won by Hauberk, who received a perfect ride by Jockey Robinson. Waukess was second, a length in front of Damrosch. Hauberk trailed far out of contention for the first half a mile, but closed determinedly under punishment and was going away at the end. Damrosch was used up forcing the early pace and had nothing left when called upon.

When the cerise, gold spots and cap of "Ned" McLean came down in the first race with Kewpie O'Neill as the bearer, it was one of the most popular wins of the meeting. Now that McLean's horses have come around to themselves it is most likely they will step down in front on many occasions. It kept Mr. McLean busy in the clubhouse shaking hands with his many good wishers over the success of Kewpie O'Neill.

August Belmont ran one, two in the Brookdale purse when Jyntee beat Drastic a length, while Reveller was third.

BE A REAL ACTOR

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Benny Kauff, No. 100; Petit her properties and a dash-print of the plate. Before the series opened few spoke of Davy Robertson save with a careless intonation. By the end of the fourth game Davy was batting, 500, with a brilliant fielding record to carry him along.

Parker-Bridget & Co .- "Quality"

--- a man-message to the thousands of new arrivals in Washington.

DACK home you had your favor-Dite shop for buying wearing apparel-a shop where you knew "things" were "right."

In Washington we want you to know P-B's (Parker-Bridget's) -this P-B store has been here for a quarter-century and numbers its patrons from practically every State in the Union. Washingtonians know it as a "reliable store"-"a good place for quality things"it's the store of service and satisfaction-it's the store where quality comes first—the store where you must be satisfied.

I P-B's quality displays for men are the largest in Washington-thousands of quality Suits and Overcoats and every other dress need-a store where you are as welcome to look as to buy.

(May we have the opportunity of serving you?

There are stated occasions when the ever elastic but at times annoying dope has been known to wav-er. But in the main it generally manages to come romping through...lii This Giant-White Sox jubilee is one case in hand. Before the series opened at looked to be a six or seven game affair. Our viewpoint, as expounded in a leading weekly, was a seven-game series, with the Giants favored by four games to three.

This viewpoint received a terrific

TO PRONOUNCE NAME

Since the world series started there has been almost as much argument over the pronunciation of Eddie Citotte's name as over the famous problem, "How old is Ann?" Out in Chicago the announcer at Comiskey walk of life one may attempt to make his careworn way.

But in the main the dope is about as correct as anything else.

The Ups and Downs.

We recall no other series where the ups and downs have followed with such velocity. In Chicago wer a game of draw, when a looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and, as he was looking over a game of draw, when a piece of cardboard, and the world series started there has been almost as much argument over the pronunciation of Eddie Citott's name as over the famous problem, "How old is Ann?" How old is Ann?"

In Chicago ancestors over in France used to spel their name with an initial "S" and that they were never known by any other pronunciation than "See-Cot."
